2024 Summer Employment Resource Form Off-Campus Community Service

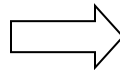

This form only needs to be completed by students interested in working off-campus during summer 2024 through the Feinstein Institute for Public Service.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR STUDENT:

- The Providence College Office of Financial Aid must have received your 2024-2025 FAFSA application to determine your eligibility and/or award work-study for the summer.
- You may only use your work-study award from July 1, 2024 through September 1, 2024.
- Receiving work-study during the summer is not a guarantee you will also receive work-study during the academic year.
- Work Study earnings are taxable.

HOURS & PAY RATES:

Maximum Pay Rate	Classification IV $16.75
Maximum Hours Per Week	40
Maximum Work Study Award for Summer	$5,360*

*$5,360 is the maximum amount earned if you work 40 hours a week for the 8 weeks of summer. If you earn more than the amount listed in your choice of "Summer Living Arrangements" (on/off campus or with parent), the difference of your earnings and the maximum award of $5,360 will be added to your academic year federal work study award and could cause a reduction of other need-based aid.

SUMMER LIVING ARRANGEMENTS:

CHECK ONE BOX:

_____	I am living on/off campus during Summer 2024	If you are living on/off campus and you earn more than the budgeted amount of $3307 during the summer, the overage will be considered a resource, which could impact your aid for the 2023-2024 academic year.
_____	I am living with my parent during Summer 2024	If you are living with your parent and you earn more than the budgeted amount of $1147 during the summer, the overage will be considered a resource, which could impact your aid for the 2023-2024 academic year.

STUDENT SIGNATURE:

By signing this form, you certify that you will be a registered student at Providence College for the 2024-2025 Academic Year and will be enrolled at least half-time.
